Why Speaking at OpenFinity//EXPO?

In October, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau will release the much-anticipated final 1033 ruling. The regulation will provide many benefits to consumers and will also unleash a wealth of opportunities for the financial services industry.

On November 19-20, OpenFinity will organize a gathering of leading industry experts. They will share their knowledge, experience, and perspectives with the financial community about what lies ahead, and how they can help with adoption and compliance.

Over 55 countries worldwide already support open banking. Now, the U.S. is joining the movement.

Support the Community

- ▶ Help like-minded financial services professionals to navigate the 1033 ruling landscape.
- ▶ Signal your thought leadership to the community.
- ▶ Upcoming October regulation mandates Open Banking compliance; 99.99% of the public is unaware. Financial Institutions must be educated to inform customers about improved services and compliance.

What They Said at our May 16 Event

"We've got about a year to comply, and we're going to have to make some very rapid decisions to get something out there that complies with this regulation."

Nicolas Zeman, Senior Solution Architect at Zions Bancorporation

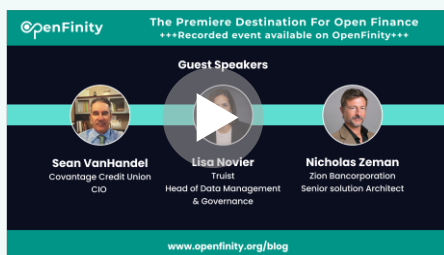

"We're trying to solve to moving away from screen scraping, That's critically important for us from a risk management perspective."

Lisa Novier, Head of Data Management & Governance at Truist

"As soon as you can have consent and secure data sharing through APIs, the sky's the limit for what we can achieve in the financial industry," Sean remarked."

Sean VanHandel, CIO for Covantage Credit Union
